

Dr. Balvin B. Braham was born in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica. Currently, he serves the General Conference of SDA Inter-American Division as Field Secretary and Assistant to the President, for Evangelism and Leadership Development. He studied at Northern Caribbean University where he obtained both a baccalaureate degree in theology and a diploma in education. He obtained a Masters degree in Religion from Andrews University and a doctorate in organizational leadership from Argosy University. Before joining the Inter-American Division, he served the Church in West Jamaica Conference as School teacher, principal, district pastor, youth director, education director, communication Director and President. He also served as Youth director of West Indies Union Conference. Dr. Braham is married to Anett who is a registered nurse and they have two grown daughters: Shavannie who is a lawyer and Julaine, a student in medical school. His passion is to help in equipping pastors and members for mission fulfillment.